Pars Community's Free Connectivity Programme Policy

Pars Community provides free SIM cards to eligible students and active volunteers to help them access mobile data and stay connected.

Each SIM card includes 40 GB of mobile data per month for six months. The six-month service period begins when the SIM card is first switched on and activated.

Eligibility and Distribution Policy

- Eligibility: SIM cards are available only to students of Pars Community and active volunteers.
- Mandatory registration: All students and volunteers must be registered with Pars Community to be eligible for the programme.
- Attendance requirement: Individuals must have attended Pars Community Centre on at least two occasions to qualify.
- Attendance verification: Attendance will be recorded or checked to confirm eligibility.
- Distribution: Eligible individuals may receive a SIM card on or after their third visit, subject to availability.
- Limited availability: SIM cards are distributed on a first-come, first-served basis and are subject to stock availability.

Service Limitations and Disclaimer

Pars Community provides SIM cards as part of its free connectivity programme but does not provide or control the mobile network or telecommunications service.

Pars Community accepts no responsibility for issues relating to the SIM card, mobile network, or service plan, including but not limited to:

- No signal, weak signal, or limited network coverage.
- Poor, interrupted, or unavailable mobile data or internet connectivity.
- Network outages, service interruptions, or technical faults.
- Roaming availability, charges, or restrictions.
- Changes in signal strength or connectivity when travelling or moving to different locations.
- SIM card activation, compatibility, device settings, software issues, or other technical problems.
- Any restrictions, changes, or issues relating to the mobile service provider, SIM card, or service plan.

Responsibility for the mobile network, service plan, SIM card functionality, technical support, and any related service issues rests with the relevant SIM card or mobile service provider. Users should contact the provider directly for assistance with these matters.

General Conditions

Pars Community reserves the right to distribute SIM cards according to availability and the eligibility criteria outlined in this policy. Receiving a SIM card is subject to registration, attendance requirements, and stock availability.

By accepting a SIM card through this programme, recipients acknowledge and accept the terms and conditions set out in this policy.
